ORDER:

The District Collector, East Godavari in the reference third read above informed that while distributing the essential commodities to the flood victims of Godavari river in terms of G.O in the reference first read above during their visit in the flood affected areas of Rampachodavaram and Yatapaka divisions and due to lack of power supply from 30-07-2019 the tribal people are facing much problems in the night. The 2ltrs K.Oil quantity is not sufficient to them due to continuous stoppage of power supply. Therefore, they have supplied 3 more ltrs of K.Oil to the tribal families whose houses are affected due to floods. The two divisions are tribal areas in the district around 10,943 families (4510/Rampachowdavaram division and 6433 families in Yatapaka division) are affected due to the floods to Godavari river subject to the approval of Government. Now, he has requested the Government to ratify his action in having distribution of additional quantity of 3 Ltrs of K.Oil to the tribal families of Rampachowdavaram and Yatapaka divisions.

2. After consideration of the above position, Government hereby decided to extend the same benefit i.e., additional quantity of 3 Ltrs.in addition to the 2 Ltrs K.Oil in West Godavari District Agency areas also, to all house holds which are in inundated/marooned for more than 7 days and effected by power stoppage.

3. The action of the District Collector, East Godavari in distribution of additional quantity of 3 Ltrs of K.Oil in addition to the 2 Ltr quantity of K.Oil to the tribal families in Rampachowdavaram and Yatapaka division is hereby ratified.

(PTO)

4. The District Collector, West Godavari is also requested to take necessary action on distribution of additional quantity of 3 Ltrs in addition to 2 Ltrs. K.Oil where the tribal families whose houses are inundated/marooned for more than 7 days and power stoppage in such areas.
